Booking Conditions

1. The Rhythm Kitchen reserves the right to change or cancel any course should the necessity arise.
2. We reserve the right to exclude any child prior to or during an activity if in our opinion, that person is incompatible with the well being of others.
3. Your child's property is your own responsibility. If anything goes missing, please let the course leader know as soon as possible.
4. If your child is unable to attend a pre-booked workshop we require at least one weeks notice.
5. In the unlikely event that a child experiences a problem or difficulty while on a workshop the matter should be reported immediately to the course leader who has the authority to deal with most queries.
